Answer: The Fall semester at Tsinghua University will commence as scheduled. According to the current situation of epidemic prevention and control:

For international students now in the low-risk regions in the Chinese Mainland, they are expected to register on-site at the university and take part in offline learning.

For students who are not currently in the Chinese Mainland and who cannot enter the country due to travel restrictions and entry requirements, they can register online for online learning.

答：清华大学秋季学期如期开课。根据目前的疫情防控形势，在中国大陆低风险地区的国际学生可以来校报到参加线下学习。由于旅行限制和入境要求还不能入境、不在中国大陆的同学，可以进行线上报到、线上学习。

Q2. I am currently outside the Chinese Mainland. Is there any estimated time for when I am able to enter the mainland?

Currently, international students not in the Chinese Mainland need to wait until further announcements by the Chinese government regarding adjustments to its entry measures. They are advised to follow notices and announcements by the Chinese Embassy, consulates or related offices in their country or region.

答：因为疫情的不确定性，目前没有预计允许入境的估计时间。目前不在中国大陆的国际学生需要等到中国政府调整入境措施并公告后才可以入境。建议国际学生关注所在国家或地区的中国使领馆或相关机构的通知或公告。

The school/department will submit a summary of admitted students who have opted to defer enrollment before August 31th to the Graduate Student Status and Scholarships Office.

To enroll for the Fall semester in 2022, international students who defer their enrollment must apply before May 31st, 2022 (Beijing time) and receive approval from their school/ department. Once approved, the student may enroll for the Fall semester along with other incoming students.
